

Swiss Premium Hotels continues to grow!

Rüschlikon, 21 December 2009 – The four star Hotel Arc-en-ciel in Gstaad, Bernese Oberland, has become member of Swiss Premium Hotels.

This beautiful chalet-hotel enjoys a peaceful setting nearby cable car and ski slopes Eggi. Guests to the hotel are surrounded by 40 cosy rooms & suites, and alpine-chic styled apartments at the residence, fantastic views and balcony included. All apartments have been completely renovated. Facial and body treatments are available at their Beauty Salon. The Private Spa & Fitness at the Residence offers saunas, steambath and a gym. A heated outdoor swimming pool is at the hotel guests' disposition during the summer season. In addition the Hotel Arc-en-ciel offers stylishly furnished seminar and meeting rooms with daylight and modern infrastructure. For culinary Swiss delights there's a choice of various restaurants, and a Pizzeria for the Italian cuisine. Situated in one of Switzerland's most beautiful mountain resorts, the hotel is steps from world-class shops, galleries & restaurants. Owned by the Matti family, the hotel is managed by Christiane Matti and her team.
